

1. What is your first impression of using the prototype? Is it fluent? Why?
2. Before you use the prototype, how could you solve the question?
3. Was there any part that immediately interested you or confused you?
4. Was there any step where you felt hesitant, uncertain, or had to try multiple times?
5. Is the problem this product aims to solve important to you? Why?
6. Do you feel that it helped you accomplish what you wanted to do?
7. Is there any feature that you feel is "nice to have" but not necessary?
8. If this product were launched tomorrow, in what situations would you use it?
9. Was there any information, button, process, or page that felt unnecessary?
10. What do you think is still missing for it to become truly usable?
11. Are you currently using any similar products, methods, or tools?
12. Compared with your current approach, what advantages does this prototype have?
13. In what ways is it not as good as your current approach?
14. In what situations would you choose to continue using your current method instead of this product?
15. Would you be willing to continue using this product? Why?
16. Would you recommend it to others? Why or why not?
17. If this were a paid product, what kind of pricing or payment model would feel reasonable to you?
18. On a scale from 1 to 10, how would you rate this prototype? Why not higher or lower?
19. Is there anything important that we did not ask about but you would like to share?